2012 Christ the King School received re-accreditation from the Middle States Commission of Elementary Schools. Below are a few things the visitation team, directed by Mr. Walter Tigue had to say about Christ the King:

- Within the last three years the school has taken steps to dramatically improve technology and the use of technology in the classroom and communicating to parents at home.
- The climate of the school is very conducive to student learning.
- Christ the King School embraces a very positive approach to its mission and beliefs. It is totally devoted to the development of the child in all aspects of his/her development.
- The school also promotes love of country and participation in the democratic process. Nurturing dignity and faith in God is encouraged through school liturgies, prayer and retreats offered by the school.
- The faculty is commended for being strong role models and teaching through example.
- The students of Christ the King school are commended for their attitude and behavior which reflects the Catholic Identity and Mission of the school.

Tour our school, meet our staff, students and see if Christ the King is right for you. We are currently enrolling students into our part and full time pre-K 4 classes, full-time kindergarten classes and grades 1-8.

AT CHRIST THE KING
WE HAVE ACADEMICS, FAITH AND SERVICE.
WE HAVE IT ALL!
